Charming Bedroom Suites

just arrived from factories which have the respect of every man who "knows" beds.

There is a mysterious "something" about the finish and lines of a worthy maker's woodcraft that endears it to those who grow familiar with it.

Those beautiful Bedroom Sets, made with care and skill, finished inside and out with equal honesty for the things that show and for the things that count underneath—"clear conscience" suites we call them—they are worthy of your inspection.

You may not have an opportunity to buy these pieces now (and it is almost certain you will never have an opportunity at these prices again), but the few minutes you spend looking at them will be pleasant.

Your ideas and ideals of beautiful Bedroom Furniture at moderate cost will be stimulated by your visit to our store this week.

HOTEL WALLS FELL.

Ruins of the Burlington Hotel Had Been Weakened Since Fire.

Burlington, June 20.—The ruins of the Hotel Burlington got tired of waiting for somebody to start something and Saturday morning pulled off a little rumpus on their own account. A section of the front wall fell outward to the sidewalk, fortunately without striking anyone.

The streets were immediately policed by a force of firemen and later in the day several sections of the remaining walls were pulled down by a force of workmen under the direction of Frank McWhorter. The walls have been gradually weakened by the action of the elements ever since the fire.

A "WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT."

Written by Mrs. Hale of Barre and Published in Boston, Sunday Herald.

In yesterday's Boston Sunday Herald, accompanying a four-column picture of Theodore Roosevelt on the first page, were the following verses: "Welcome to Roosevelt," written by Mrs. Mary Estabrook Hale of Keith avenue, Barre:—

"Fly, O flags, in the jubilant air! Ring, O bells, and trumpets blare! Boom, O guns, from turret and fort, Greeting the ship that comes to port Proudly bearing our man of men Back to the land that he loves again!

"Welcome him home from jungle and plain! Home from courts where the mighty reign! Proud are we of his honors won, Proud is the state of her dauntless son! Glory we all in his matchless fame, While the glad land rings with Roosevelt's name!"

"Barre, Vt., June 18."

WASHINGTON.

C. H. Dickey Will Be Much Missed in This Town.

The funeral services of C. H. Dickey were held this afternoon at 1:30 at his late residence and at 2 o'clock at the church. The grave, of which he has always been a faithful member, attended in a body, Rev. F. E. Perkins of Corinth, assisted by Rev. Irving Towles, officiated. Mr. Dickey was born in the town of Topsham, but his home town was Orange. "Cy" as he was familiarly called, was a man that will be missed by all, as he was always ready to assist in all enterprises and always ready to help the needy. He held the office of town clerk for some time and until last November, when, on account of failing health, he resigned. The interment was in the new cemetery.

The Odd Fellows and their wives and children met at their new hall Saturday for the purpose of dedicating the same. A short program was rendered, after which refreshments of rolls, cake, strawberries and sherbet were served.

RESIGNS STATE POSITION.

H. G. Thomas No Longer Fish and Game Commissioner.

Stowe, June 20.—State Fish and Game Commissioner Henry G. Thomas of this town has tendered his resignation to Governor G. H. Prentiss in that capacity, such resignation to take effect on August 1, for business reasons. The resignation has been accepted. Mr. Thomas is a native of Stowe, is a dealer in coal and fuel, was a member of the South Dakota school board and director of the Masonic Mutual Aid in Minneapolis, organized June 1, 1901, in Company B, 3rd Vermont infantry, serving three years and two months and was regimental postmaster two years. Mr. Thomas has held the office for a period of eight years and has served the state very efficiently.

No choice of a successor has been made but the name of John W. Ticecomb, former commissioner and formerly engaged with the United States' bureau of fisheries and now with T. N. Vail at Speedwell farm, Lyndonville, has been frequently mentioned in that capacity.
